NV	Pol Roger Brut Reserve Such a complete wine, too; biscuity, yeasty, fruit-firm yet florally blessed. Indeed, it is the perfect circle of harmony and balance.	Champagne France	$29.00	$115.00
NV	Charles Heidsieck Brut Reserve The Brut Reserve is a pale straw wine with a fine bead and a vinous nose of brazil nut and toffee.	Champagne France	$32.00	$120.00
NV	Piper Heidsieck Cuvee Brut It has green apple and citrus aromas, a silky palate of spicy, tropical fruit and layers of flavour at the finish. Remarkable.	Champagne France	$15.00	$99.00
NV	Perelada Brut Reserva Exotic nose with fruits, some dried, some not, some still wet leading down the raisiny, grapey path.	Penedes Spain	$8.00	$29.00
2009	Brookfields Bergman Chardonnay The bouquet displays tropical fruit aromas embellished by understated oak. Partial malolactic has given the palate a creamy texture that complements the melon and stonefruit flavours. A classic.	Hawkes Bay New Zealand	$9.00	$34.00
2010	Matawhero Gisborne Chardonnay Like a slowly baked lemon tart, this issues forth the most delicious citrus-derived aromas and flavours, then sets them atop a creamy, malolactic-inflected and oak-tinged base.	Gisborne New Zealand	$11.00	$41.00
2009	Growers Mark Sauvignon Blanc Exceptional expression of the variety and terroir. Passionfruit aromas are underscored by herbaceous nuances. The lively palate is packed with classic, zesty varietal flavours.	Marlborough New Zealand	$10.00	$37.00
2010	Jules Taylor Sauvignon Blanc A fine, authentic Marlborough Sauvignon Blanc, with intense varietal characters lashed to a palate of richness, breadth and seductive texture.	Marlborough New Zealand	$10.00	$38.00
2009	Gisselbrecht Pinot Gris It's easy to understand why Alsace arguably make the best Pinot Gris in the world; they've been at it for a long time; since the 17th century in fact!	Alsace France	$12.00	$45.00
2008	Lusco Zios Albarino Zingily crisp, with radiant tropical fruit linked arm in arm with some herbaceous freshness, it has the flamboyance for late lunch, the charm for early evening, and the promise of open-toed footwear.	Rias Baixas Spain	$13.00	$49.00
2010	Akarua Central Otago Pinot Rose It is a deliciously fresh and lively wine, with a juicy character complemented by a creamy texture and a lingering, flavoursome aftertaste.	Central Otago New Zealand	$10.00	$37.00
2009	Marques De Caceres Rosado Supported by a bouquet of raspberry and strawberry, the palate is balanced and elegant, with the ripe berry flavours enhanced by a fresh finish.	Rioja Spain	$10.00	$38.00
2010	Tupari Dry Riesling The wine displays mineral notes, and good fruit weight following through with complementary well-balanced acidity and a fresh, crisp finish.	Marlborough New Zealand	$12.00	$43.00

2009	Rockburn Central Otago Pinot Noir The Rockburn '09 Pinot is showing great complexity, poise and grace and it can only improve with age.	Central Otago New Zealand	$19.00	$72.00
2009	Akarua Pinot Noir The beautifully poised palate has an excess of sensuous berryfruit flavours, complemented by a svelte texture and a fine, lingering finish.	Central Otago New Zealand	$15.00	$58.00
2009	Rua Pinot Noir There's a knot of delicious fruit at the heart of this touching expression, with spice sprinkles and brushstrokes of wild flowers. Loads going on for so very little.	Central Otago New Zealand	$11.00	$42.00
2008	Torbreck Woodcutters Shiraz A classic Barossa Valley Shiraz, the pure, ripe fruit underpinned by spicy nuances and supple oak. Impressively structured and balanced, it has a svelte texture and a fine finish.	South Australia Australia	$17.00	$65.00
2008	Taylors Jaraman Cabernet Sauvignon Blackcurrant, cherry and mint dominate, with underlying notes of dark chocolate, coffee and cinnamon coming through the depths.	Clare Valley Australia	$16.00	$60.00
2008	Sacred Hill Halo Merlot Cab Franc Deep and inky colour, this wine has a ripe scented nose with ripe black fruits and complex notes of cocoa, mocha and nutty oak.	Hawkes Bay New Zealand	$11.00	$42.00
2006	Chateau Briot Attractively dark in the glass with a delightful violet touch to the voluble berryfruit. A slight Bordelaise dustiness adds shade and complexity.	Bordeaux France	$10.00	$35.00
2008	Bodegas Emilio Moro Hito This is a thoroughly modern, fruit-driven style that exudes more class than is decent, and dispenses its myriad gifts with liberal charm and panache. Racy, rich yet rather refined.	Ribera Del Duer Spain	$12.00	$45.00
2007	Palacios Remondo La Montesa There is an untameable rusticity here, with wild herbs, brambly berries and briar characters scratching their way into your psyche before fragrant flowers embrace you like a needy child.	Rioja Spain	$13.00	$48.00
2007	Huerta De Albala Barbazul We have a wine derived from the local Tintilla de Rota grape styled to blow you down with its audacious fruit, spice and sheer gall. Flavoursome, big-hearted and immensely satisfying.	Cadiz Spain	$10.00	$38.00
2009	Chakana Estate Cabernet With a bouquet of currants and red peppers and wild spices on the nose, Chakana's Cabernet Sauvignon is skilfully made from carefully hand-harvested grapes.	Mendoza Argentina	$8.00	$30.00
2009	Montes Classic Malbec Surgingly fruity, with a preponderance of plums and a blather of blackberries, all wrapped up in a five pound note.	Curico Valley Chile	$8.00	$28.00
2009	Cecchi Chianti Docg Aromas of morello cherry, violet and ripe tomato are seasoned by a flick of herb, while the medium-weighted, nicely integrated palate has a smooth mouthfeel and a lingering aftertaste.	Tuscany Italy	$9.00	$34.00
