Jack Daniel's is America's oldest registered distillery, yet over the extensive reign of this iconic American brand there have been only seven individuals charged with overseeing the painstaking process of producing Tennessee's Finest and extending its legacy of excellence.

These chosen few have a heritage that runs back to Jack Daniel himself. To honour the masterful level of craftsmanship displayed by these men, this month sees the launch of a very special collection from Jack Daniel's: the Master Distiller Series.

The seven Jack Daniel's Master Distillers they pay tribute to are:

Jack Daniel, 1866-1911; Jess Motlow, 1911-1941; Lem Tolley, 1941-1964; Jess Gamble, 1964-1966; Frank Bobo, 1966-1988; Jimmy Bedford, 1988-2008; Jeff Arnett, 2008-Present.

Master Distiller No 1 is the first of this series, beginning, of course, with Jack Daniel himself, in a celebration of the golden age when his unique recipe and high-level craftsmanship practices were first initiated.

This is strictly a Limited Edition Series, with one-time-only bottlings for each of the seven, and with so many aficionados of Jack out there (me included), I don't expect this one to make it to Christmas Day on our shelves. Be in.

Jack Daniel's MASTER DISTILLER No1

CHARCOAL MELLOWED
TENNESSEE WHISKEY 700ML 99500

RRP $64.99 $58.99

It's Old No 7 as you know it, but with a higher ABV of 43%. As those in the know will be well aware, that makes it perfect for sipping, and that's just the way Jack Daniel himself liked his Jack. Given that this is, after all, a tribute to the aforementioned gentleman, sipping it has to make perfect sense, doesn't it.

PIPER-HEIDSIECK

MASTERS OF THE SPARKLING ARTS

PIPER-HEIDSIECK

The oldest of the three Heidsieck champagne houses, Piper-Heidsieck was founded in 1785 by Florens-Louis Heidsieck. Ambitious to make his mark, F-L created a cuvée which he dedicated and presented in person to Queen Marie-Antoinette, a patronage one assumes was, at a certain point, abruptly severed.

Florens-Louis died in 1828, and his nephew, Christian Heidsieck, went into partnership with Henri-Guillaume Piper, an energetic entrepreneur who did much to champion champagne throughout the world. Christian died suddenly in 1835, and three years later his widow married Henri-Guillaume and the company became known as Piper-Heidsieck.

In more modern times, Piper-Heidsieck has established itself as one of champagne's most consistent and reliable expressions. Under the guidance of Head Winemaker Regis Camus the company has won countless awards and medals, with Camus and his team named Winemaker of the Year a staggering number of times at the International Wine Challenge, a feat encompassing the last seven years in a row.

In 2011, the prestigious FINE Champagne magazine awarded the Piper-Heidsieck Rare first place in its Best 100 Champagnes list. Under the astute direction of Camus, Piper-Heidsieck's crisply fresh and radiantly vivacious expressions have ascended, in both quality and stature, to a very high level of excellence.

Blood oranges, glinting copper, then the unique and extraordinary nose: exotic, ethereal red fruits with florid floral characters. A fully evident but not overworked yeast component on the very dry-styled palate, with delicious summer fruits, a bready undertow and a crispness and freshness that calls for the great outdoors. Irresistible.

PIPER-HEIDSIECK RARE 2002

was $399.00 now $325.00 48100

The Rare is just that: made only in exceptional years from top-rated crus, a remarkably refined champagne that exhibits glorious balance as it dispenses its exotic flavours. This is Piper's pièce de résistance, a 70% Chardonnay, 30% Pinot Noir blend that'll age beautifully for decades. Rich, complex, intense, it nonetheless evokes crisp and ethereal as well. Extraordinary bottle.

PERELADA

The Perelada castle houses Spain's largest privately-held library, within which parchments detail wine-making practices that date back to the Middle Ages. With the viticultural part of the Perelada activities revitalised in the 1920s, and much fame achieved in the 1960s, this is one of Spain's most significant producers, the wines a scintillating blend of centuries' worth of knowledge and cutting-edge modernism. The Perelada wines have almost become standard issue at royal and government functions, such is their consistent quality and the esteem in which they are held.

CASTILLO PERELADA

PERELADA BRUT RESERVA CAVA NV 88051

HOT OFF THE VINE

WHERE FASHION MEETS WINE

Wine's a funny thing; its history dates back thousands of years, yet it seems that every time we take a look there is something new – a surprising, underutilized variety, a fresh way of doing the old – to keep it exciting and stop us all from falling asleep in our daiquiris. And so, in a month that sees New Zealand present its fashion culture to the world, we thought it appropriate to shine a light on what's trending in our world: the transition of rosé to a year-round tippie, the edgy new varieties, the dynamic, brave new world that is South America and its food-loving wines, the timely rise of organic and biodynamic offerings and our fastest-growing category, cider. Enjoy.

Rosé

IT'S THE NEW PINK

BARRINGTON RIVER BLOCK CENTRAL OTAGO PINOT ROSÉ 2012

WAS $21.99 NOW $18.99 12200

CASE OF 12 $18.49 A BOTTLE

Central rosés are becoming an extinct breed; one minute they're there and the next they're gone. Here's one, though: bright raspberry hues herald aromas of sherbet and boiled red sweets that slide onto the palate, where cherries and raspberries dance about the mouth in lively fashion before it all draws to a crisp, refreshing climax.

LAKE CHALICE DEB'S MARLBOROUGH PINOT ROSÉ 2013

CASE OF 12 $15.49 A BOTTLE

Celestially touched this, a divine little gathering of all that's good about this sort of wine: fresh, clean, crisp fruit flavours and enough going on to avoid any insinuations of insipidity. Packed and ready to hit the great outdoors.

SOHO WESTWOOD WAIHEKE ISLAND ROSÉ 2013

CASE OF 12 $19.49 A BOTTLE

100% hand-picked Waiheke Island fruit that's been carefully fashioned, this could easily fetch double the dollars. Bright, limpid pools of crimson delight the eye, while the flavours are tropically tinged – cherries and berries, mainly, and plums. The lush flavours are tempered by stringent control; with good acid, this is refreshing but still substantial. It's tart, then, with enough stuffing to justify the unwrapping and general handing around of the cold meats.

JULES TAYLOR GISBORNE ROSÉ 2013

CASE OF 12 $19.49 A BOTTLE

The Gisborne Merlot fruit brings an intensity to the freshness that many would kill (or at least maim) for; being off the astute Peter Briant's wonderful vineyard, it is brilliantly clean and beautifully flavoured. Add in the Jules Taylor winemaking skills and it's a match made in, well, Gisborne, actually. Strawberries and cream, ripe raspberries, wild herbs; a pannier of pleasure.

MIDDLE-EARTH NELSON PINOT MEUNIER ROSÉ 2013

CASE OF 12 $18.49 A BOTTLE

Pinot Meunier is the grape of choice here. A base varietal in the production of France's mighty champagnes, it's not particularly common to see it out on the town all by itself; yet in a rosé it works, by golly. A rich and luscious mouthfeel, with a touch of Framboise, rosewater and jasmine embraced by a juicy acidity that provides a handy dose of balance and length.

CHÂTEAU LÉOUBE CÔTES DE PROVENCE ROSÉ 2011

WAS $39.00 NOW $26.99 42749

CASE OF 12 $26.49 A BOTTLE

Jump aboard, we're off to the South of France – the procedure is straightforward: lift your glass and close your eyes, and you're there. The Leoube property is spectacular, and conveniently comes with two private beaches on the Mediterranean. This is a big wine, with rich fruit, sensuous textures and a sublimely silky palate. The quality? In our opinion, the finest in southern France.

COOPERS CREEK GISBORNE BELL-RINGER ALBARIÑO 2013

WAS $24.99 NOW $19.99 11871

CASE OF 6 $19.49 A BOTTLE

A white variety that thrives in Spain's north-western appellation of Rias Baixas and parts of Portugal, the fruit for this is all Gisborne, courtesy of Doug and Delwyn Bell. The wine itself comes across pure and fresh, with delightful hints of citrus and peach. Committed fans of the Spanish expressions, we're delighted to find Albariño feeling so at home in this part of the world.

MATAWHERO GISBORNE ARNEIS 2009

WAS $25.90 NOW $19.99 10760

CASE OF 6 $19.49 A BOTTLE

With all the work being done by Gisborne's Riversun Nursery, it's not surprising to find a number of largely unexploited varieties hailing from those parts. A stylish, off-dry take on a classic Italian white grape, Matawhero's Arneis boasts an exotic bouquet and an assured palate showing herb-tinged touches of stonefruit and marzipan.

JULES TAYLOR MARLBOROUGH GRÜNER VELTLINER 2013

WAS $24.99 NOW $19.99 10609

CASE OF 12 $19.49 A BOTTLE

Grüner Veltliner is a significant Austrian white variety, with this expression from the inimitable Jules Taylor possessing a deliciously perfumed bouquet, the spicy stonefruit aromas continuing through onto the off-dry palate. Pretty terrific on debut, this has become a favourite drop for many of our regulars.

MONTES ALPHA CHILE CARMENÈRE 2010

WAS $28.90 NOW $21.99 90582

CASE OF 12 $21.49 A BOTTLE

Chile's signature grape, Carmenère is all about rich, dark berries and fruity spiciness. The key with Chilean red varieties is not the struggle to get them ripe, but preventing them from over-cooking. Montes are longtime past masters. The Alpha is plummy but not baked, fragrant but not overtly soft. A savoury style of wine, if you like Cabernet and are looking for something a little different, give this a go. Will continue to develop for another 2-3 years in bottle.

TERRELÍADE TIMPA GIADDA SICILIA GRILLO IGT 2011

WAS $28.00 NOW $19.99 62845

CASE OF 6 $19.49 A BOTTLE

Grillo is a native Sicilian variety with a capful of personality, the fruit, spice, florals and mineral notes bound seamlessly together into an elegant whole. A remarkably full bodied wine, the ideal drinking window is 2-4 years. While this is an aromatic style, it does need some air to open it up; for maximum effect, try drinking it from a Riedel Vinum Burgundy glass.

GISSELBRECHT TRADITION ALSACE PINOT BLANC 2010

WAS $26.00 NOW $18.99 41249

CASE OF 12 $18.49 A BOTTLE

What is Pinot Blanc? Roughly, it's the crispness of Riesling combined with the texture of Chardonnay and the fruity approach of a Pinot Gris. Clean apple aromas lead into a great texture that's deliciously weighty, yet taut and tart. There's a slight hint of sweetness, but really, it's the texture that pulps your pipfruit.

APALTA, CHILE

MONTES ALPHA
CHILE CABERNET SAUVIGNON 2010

WAS $28.90 NOW $24.99 90588

CASE OF 12 $24.49 A BOTTLE

One of Chile's top Cabernet Sauvignons from one of its finest producers, aged for twelve months in French oak barrels. Intensely ruby-hued in the bottle, heady notes of blackcurrant, chocolate and cigar box regale the nose. There is a fair degree of complexity in the full-bodied and balanced palate that's signed off with a lengthy and remarkably persistent finish.

CHAKANA
ARGENTINA MALBEC 2012

WAS $17.90 NOW $14.99 90158

CASE OF 12 $14.49 A BOTTLE

Elsewhere utilised as a component of Bordeaux-style blends, within Argentina the inky and intense Malbec is unopposed king; as the most widely planted red variety in the country, it feels no need to share the bottle with anyone. Characterised by deep, rich colours, intense, spicy flavours and velvet-lined tannins.

TERRAZAS DE LOS ANDES
ARGENTINA RESERVA MALBEC 2010

WAS $29.99 NOW $24.99 90160

CASE OF 12 $24.49 A BOTTLE

With the fruit languishing 1,067 metres above sea level, 'Terraces of the Andes' is the ideal name for these wines. This is classic Argentine Malbec, darkly elegant with intense notes of blackberry, cherry and plum. The concentrated flavours possess an appealing smooth delicacy and the finish lingers most appealingly.

MONTES CLASSIC
CHILE MALBEC 2012

WAS $18.90 NOW $14.99 90560

CASE OF 12 $18.49 A BOTTLE

Surgingly fruity, with a preponderance of plums and a blather of blackberries. Nice spice, not posh and far too cool to be sporty. It's all about the fruit, and a very generous weight and length, especially given that price point. Think big; buy a case.

MONTES LIMITED SELECTION
CHILE CABERNET CARMENÈRE 2011

WAS $21.90 NOW $18.99 90576

CASE OF 12 $18.49 A BOTTLE

Now very much at home in Chile, Carmenerè was originally planted alongside the Cabernet vines in Bordeaux; fitting, then, that it is blended here with its old associate, which takes 70% of the reins. The ample, medium-weighted palate is softly generous, with smooth tannins and a long aftertaste.

CHAKANA RESERVE
ARGENTINA MALBEC 2011

WAS $22.90 NOW $19.99 90161

CASE OF 12 $19.49 A BOTTLE

This is impressive; the colour alone would have you weep purple prose, the perfume so seductive if you tire of drinking you can always dab it on. Tightly woven aromatics of deep berries, wood, coffee, and leather so smooth you'll slip; the palate is rich, chewy and meaty/savoury with the berries getting inkier.

ORGANIC & BIODYNAMIC

TRAVELLING THE GREEN HIGHWAY

VILLA MARIA PRIVATE BIN HAWKES BAY ORGANIC MERLOT 2011

WAS $15.99 NOW $12.99 19715

CASE OF 12 $12.49 A BOTTLE

The Villa Maria stalwarts lead the charge, as ever, with this amiably-priced organic offering. A dark crimson hue paves the way to a vibrant nose of red plum, boysenberry and subtle spice with cedary undertones. The soft and generous palate combines with silky tannins to make this an excellent food wine.

CRAZY BY NATURE DRY FLINT CHENIN BLANC 2012

WAS $20.99 NOW $17.99 14695

CASE OF 6 $17.49 A BOTTLE

Gisborne's James and Annie Millton know a thing or two about the green winemaking revolution; one of New Zealand's original, pioneering organic and biodynamic wineries, they have also mastered the wily Chenin Blanc and are currently producing a variety of styles under their well-known Millton label. They augment that range with an accessible, ready-to-drink offering under the Crazy By Nature banner.

LOVEBLOCK MARLBOROUGH SAUVIGNON BLANC 2012

WAS $27.99 NOW $22.99 10861

CASE OF 12 $22.49 A BOTTLE

The remarkable Kim Crawford emerges once again with his latest venture, Loveblock, an organic winery developed with Erica Crawford. Those paying attention will note the label says 'made with organic grapes' – that is an export term to meet American requirements. The lifted aromatics are peach, fig and a touch of tomato, while the palate evokes white peach and subtle herbaceous notes with a edge of linear acidity.

SERESIN MARLBOROUGH CHARDONNAY 2010

CASE OF 12 $24.49 A BOTTLE

It's very much about texture, this wine, more of a Pollock than a Monet, if you will. (Ahh, that six months at Elam weren't wasted then, sonny). Full malo, warm ferments and plenty of barrel action align exquisitely with the cool Marlborough fruit to unleash a wine of style, class, complexity and grace. One of our great Chardonnays, no question.

ARROGANT FROG PÉZENAS RIBET ROUGE RURAL 2011

WAS $21.00 NOW $16.99 43993

CASE OF 12 $16.49 A BOTTLE

Who says the French don't have a sense of humour? The Arrogant Frog approach involves combining French know-how with screw-caps. The annual Victoria Park Pétanque Tourney aside, may it be said that this southern French red belle has all the fruit, charm and flavour you could want, with none of the arrogance. Jean-Claude Mas comes from a family with a long tradition of winemaking in southern France, dating right back to 1892. In the Arrogant Frog wines he combines, successfully, all of that accumulated history with a thoroughly modern outlook.

PUTTING THE FIZZ IN EVE'S DOWNFALL

ZEFFER DRY
MATAKANA APPLE CIDER 330ML

4-PACK $13.99 91359

Born and bred just north of Auckland in the town made famous by its farmer's market, Matakana, it was, in fact, said market where this first became available for purchase. It is a crisp, refreshing drop with a light sparkle and a dry finish, every mouthful pre-soaked in northern coastal sun. Struts its green apple tang without the assistance of any artificial add-ons.

APPLE TREE
APPLE & ELDERFLOWER CIDER 500ML

SINGLE $6.99 91670

A boutique producer established by Sam Cooney, an experienced winemaker with time in NZ, Australia and France. Modelled on the lighter French styles, this is made from Hawkes Bay Braeburn apples and hand-picked elderflower blossoms. Subtle floral, honeyed aromas introduce a fresh palate with citrus and tropical characters, crisp acidity and rich textures.

CHRISTIAN DROUIN
NORMANDY BRUT CIDER 750ML

SINGLE $11.99 92093

The Brut is a blend of about thirty apple varieties, with most bitter and rich in tannins that provide body, along with some sweeter, softer varieties for flavour and balance. Light and fruity, it is an elegant, low-alcohol, semi-sparkling cider with a clean refreshing character. Can fly solo, but rather good when paired with pork or fish.

ROCHDALE TRADITIONAL
NELSON CIDER 330ML

4-PACK $9.99 12371

Plenty of sun in Nelson to kick this sparkling, medium-dry traditional cider along. # 2004 DOM PÉRIGNON

Described by the chef de cave as a contemporary classic, the latest Dom Pérignon is a vintage that has been somewhat ignored in certain circles, possibly because of its overarching normalcy, with many of the recent vintages throwing up truly unique wines, thanks to the less than standard growing conditions that accompanied them. Dom's 2004 vintage stands out for its reassuringly predictable characteristics; it is racy, singular and a pure expression of terroir. A collector's Dom, one for the cellar.

DOMAINE BOURILLON-DORLÉANS

ELEGANT CHENIN BLANC MASTERS

The Bourillon family have been making wine at Rochecorbon, in the Vouvray appellation of the Loire Valley, for generations. Records show the estate was founded as far back as 1875, but it was not until 1921 that it was organised as it is today by Gaston Dorléans.

Still very much a family concern, the domaine is today run by Gaston's great grandson, Frédéric Bourillon, who has consolidated the family's 26.5-hectares of vineyards and constructed a modern winery complex to service them. The Bourillons continue to make their wines using a traditional approach, with the immaculate Rochecorbon vineyards sustainably managed and the Chenin Blanc fruit for their highly characteristic Vouvray wines hand harvested and matured in the medieval caves alongside the winery.

The Bourillon-Dorléans range includes their sec, demi-sec and lusciously aromatic moelleux styles, all elegantly epitomising the unique vinous expression that is the Loire's Chenin Blanc.

Benchmark Chenin Blanc

Bourillon-Dorléans are leading-edge practitioners in Vouvrayland, with owner-winemaker Frederic Bourillon quite the character. In contrast to his smile-inducing but somewhat brash nature, the wines abound with signs of elegance and finesse. Exclusively Chenin Blanc, this is a great alternative to Chardonnay, the honeyed palate weighty, with nuances of chalk and lime and a mouth-tingling texture, all signed off with a stunningly long finish.

TORBREK

BAROSSA VALLEY BRILLIANCE

Included by Robert Parker in the World's Top 100 wine companies, Torbrek was established in the mid-1990s when ex-lumberjack David Powell began to nurture back to life a few plots of near lifeless, dry-grown old vines in the Barossa Valley, in time harvesting enough grapes to make his first batch of wine. His low-yielding Shiraz, Grenache and Mourvèdre wines are made utilising traditional methods and minimal intervention. Torbrek also makes white wines from the Rhône varieties Viognier, Marsanne and Roussanne.

In 2002, Torbrek bought the historic Hillside vineyard, one of the Barossa's original properties, and in 2008 a new winery was completed. The facility includes temperature-controlled cellars and a bottling line for the estate wines that are redefining the expectations of what the Barossa Valley can offer.

BAROSSA VALLEY Shiraz 2011

CASE OF 12 $29.49 A BOTTLE

This is a fantastic time to be purchasing what is already, traditionally, a very good wine. The reason? the current Woodcutter's Shiraz is using declassified fruit normally reserved for Torbrek's stunning premium expressions (the RunRig, the Struie et al), as these wines are not being produced in this season. Hence we have added opulence and complexity, with twelve months in seasoned oak barrels and bottling without fining or filtration. Beautifully integrated, undeniably elegant. Buy now.
