France

This month we call in on an old friend: France embodies the essence of winemaking, not to mention the enjoyment of the product itself, and many of the world's finest vinous practitioners take their inspiration from the holy grails of Burgundian Pinot Noir and Chardonnay, the legendary reds and the sweet wines of Bordeaux, the aromatic wonders of Alsace, the spicy opulence and deft balance of the Rhône Valley's blended wines, the delicious delicacy of Chablisean Chardonnay, the smoky, mineral elegance of the Loire Valley Sauvignons, or the deceptively pale yet dazzlingly weighted Provençal rosés. And really, who can forget the effervescent pinnacle that is French champagne? Indeed, it just goes on. However, we won't, because it's all right inside, waiting for you. Take a look.

DAGUENEAU LOIRE
BLANC FUMÉ DE POUILLY 2014
$89.00 42797

Decanter named the late Didier Dagueneau as one of the world's top ten makers of white wine, opining that his expressions 'tower over the rest of Pouilly-Fumé.' The Sauvignon Blanc wines of this risk-taking Loire perfectionist are legendary. Meeting an untimely end at the age of 52 in a plane crash, his brilliant legacy has been kept alive by his family via the dedicated and talented hands of his son, Benjamin.

PRODUCTION: GRAEME GASH, LIZ WHEADON, MICHAEL CHAPPORY, ANTHONY SORESENSEN

THE LOIRE VALLEY

With its 80-plus appellations, the Loire Valley is a treasure trove, from the Sauvignon Blanc-derived, smoky, mineral-tinged Sancerre and aromatic, steely-flavoured Pouilly-Fumé to the wines of Vouvray, fashioned from Chenin Blanc and ranging from austere to opulent. The region offers a quality/bargain metric that, quite frankly, nowhere else in France can match.

PASCAL JOLIVET LOIRE

40982 SANCERRE 2017

$36.99 CASE OF 12 $35.99 A BOTTLE

Pascal Jolivet is one of a new breed of winemakers in the Loire Valley, producing powerful, elegantly styled Sauvignon Blanc expressions. His Sancerre is graceful and restrained, displaying the dry and flinty minerality one finds in the better French wines, complemented by a vibrant, citrus-edged finish. A masterful expression.

PASCAL JOLIVET LOIRE

40927 POUILLY-FUMÉ 2016

$36.99 CASE OF 12 $35.99 A BOTTLE

On the opposite bank of the Loire to Sancerre is Pouilly-Fumé, also Sauvignon Blanc country, but with its own distinct soils and climate. This is elegantly flinty, with generous white peach characters and a bright finish.

$24.99 CASE OF 6 $23.99 A BOTTLE

The Bourillon family have been making wine at Rochecorbon, in the Vouvray appellation of the Loire Valley, for generations. ALSACE

Spiritual centre of the aromatic expression, Alsace is home to some of France's most profound wines. The region's German bloodlines still flex their muscle. Within its long and narrow confines, a host of geological combinations produce a stunning array of flavours, fragrances and textures. The benchmark for Pinot Gris, Riesling, Pinot Blanc, Muscat and Gewürztraminer.

PIERRE BRECHT ALSACE

42399 PINOT GRIS 2016

$18.99

A stellar wine, with hints of honey and minerality lightly riding the lush palate. Rich and spicy, the additional time in the bottle has provided it with a lovely rounded resonance. Exclusive to Glengarry.

Josmeyer are biodynamic producers operating at the highest level, producing dazzling aromatic wines with a purity others can only aspire to. Their superb entry-level Gris sets the benchmark with deliciously textural peach & honey characters and a haunting mineral close.

CHABLIS

The oyster-shelled terroir that is one of the key components in Chablis' unique profile is now protected by law, as important as its marginal, northerly aspect. Only one variety counts here, and that is Chardonnay, which thrives in the same chalk soils that run through Champagne. Chablis is Chardonnay in one of its purest expressions, its deliciously lean styles unmistakable.

BURGUNDY

The wines produced here are among the world's greatest. The only simple thing about Burgundy is that if it's red, it's Pinot Noir or Gamay and if it's white, it's Chardonnay. From there on it gets trickier. Inheritance laws have seen vineyards divided into ever smaller family parcels. In a sea of small producers, it is not uncommon for a single vineyard to have numerous owners.

DOMAINE ROMANIN BOURGOGNE
43732 TERROIR DE FUISSÉ POUILLY-FUISSÉ 2017
$24.99 CASE OF 12 $23.99 A BOTTLE

Romanin's Vervier Family are into their fifth generation of wine production. From the limestone soils of Mâcon and arguably its finest vineyards, those of Pouilly-Fuissé. A smart blend of power and sensitivity, poised minerality and hedonistic honeysuckle, fruit and cream.

DOMAINE DE BELLÈNE BOURGOGNE
48405 MAISON DIEU BOURGOGNE 2016
$32.99 CASE OF 6 $31.99 A BOTTLE

A modern winery sited in abbey buildings dating back to the 1600s, Domaine de Bellene is the vehicle of Burgundian maestro Nicolas Potel. His haunting, earthy opulent Pinot Noir wines are superb, with the Maison Dieu the starting point in his impressive portfolio.

42836 PERTUISOTS BEAUNE PREMIER CRU 2010
$74.99

The vineyard for this was planted in 1963. This is not a wine for the faint-hearted; the palate is massively powerful. A dense Beaune packed with fragrant fruit, it balances its power with a round, voluptuous character.

BEAUJOLAIS

Officially part of Burgundy, the nonetheless independent Beaujolais froths with highly fragrant and vibrantly flavoursome reds made from Gamay, a thin-skinned – hence low-tannin – grape that the 4,000-plus growers of the region put to (mostly) good use. Almost all of them sell to large co-operatives or négociants, with Georges Duboeuf the biggest and the most innovative.

GEORGES DUBOEUF BEAUJOLAIS
42951 SAINT-AMOUR BEAUJOLAIS 2017
$24.99

A bright, ruby-coloured Beaujolais with a perfumed nose of redcurrant, blackberry and hints of mineral. It's a lively, versatile food wine with ripe fruit flavours that linger at the finish. Popular choice on Valentine's Day.

THE RHÔNE VALLEY

In the north are some of Syrah's finest expressions. The south plays host to Grenache and the Rhône's peerless blended wines, Vacqueyras, Vinsobres and Châteauneuf-du-Pape. In between are the generic, great-value Côtes du Rhône wines. While 95% of Rhône production is red, there is delight to be found in the floral fragrances of a Muscat Beaumes-de-Venise or the lush apricot and crème fraîche nuances of a Condrieu.

MONT-REDON RHÔNE
41379 RÉSERVE CÔTES DU RHÔNE 2017
$19.99 CASE OF 12 $18.99 A BOTTLE

Established in 1344, Château Mont-Redon is one of the oldest wine estates in France and the largest single property in Châteauneuf-du-Pape. This is an exuberant, classic blend of Grenache, Cinsault and Syrah that is robust yet still refined, offering complexity and sinewy succulence via its bright fruit and earthy characters.

Champagne

GROWER CHAMPAGNES

In places like the UK and New York, many of the top wine lists are now 100% Grower champagnes. These are the family enterprises, often stretching back over generations, who own their own vineyards in the heart of the Champagne appellation, from where they grow the grapes to make their own wine, often bottling it on the premises as well. If it's individuality and character you're after, the Grower champagnes have that in spades. Lacking the gargantuan resources of the big players, they are more reliant on the characters to be found within particular vintages and locations, and some would say they are all the better for it.

- All of the Grower champagnes are exclusive to Glengarry.

BROOKFIELDS

Hawke's Bay's oldest boutique winery, Brookfields was founded in 1937 and purchased in 1977 by Peter Robertson, who has transformed it into one of the most trusted wine brands in New Zealand. He once co-owned a racehorse with Glengarry owner Jak Jakicevich's dad and he has, at times, enjoyed tickling the ivories. He is, it could be said (given his mild mannered modesty coupled with a propensity for pulling vinous rabbits out of the hat), the Clark Kent of New Zealand winemaking. In his own words, 'It is my belief that superior wines come from superior fruit, and that great wines are made in the vineyard.' To that end, Peter maintains a strict management policy specific to each vineyard site. It includes the careful selection of varietal clones, planting in appropriate locations, controlling yields and harvesting the fruit in optimum condition, with the aim of constantly improving quality. Brilliantly consistent winemaking, great value drinking.

MATEUS ROSÉ

THE ICON HAS A BRAND-NEW BOTTLE

Well, when we say, 'brand new bottle' it's pretty much the same shape (why would you change that? It's iconic), just tweaked slightly; some time at the gym, a bit off the hips, a few neck stretches, and voila! Add a new label, and Roberto's your uncle. A little while back, Mateus switched from a green glass bottle to a clear glass bottle. One imagines, though, a few diehards out there are storing their old green glass bottles and decanting the new stuff into them. Sweet memories...

ZEPHYR

IS THAT A MARK III WE HEAR?

Ah, the Zephyr Mark III. The trusty Ford (pinnacle of the Marks, some would argue) has long passed into New Zealand folklore, but there are still a few hangers-on, and we think the Zephyr Winery's Ben Glover might be one of them. A tribute, then; whole bunch pressed, ancient oak barrels, feral ferment (a bit like the Mark III itself), no stirring, no sulphur, complex fennel and melon flavours accompanied by keen acid. It's a classic, innit?

SEEDLIP

DISTILLED NON-ALCOHOLIC SPIRITS

You doing a Dry July? If so, here's the drink for you; in fact these are so cool, you don't need the excuse of an alcohol-free month to try them out. Ben Branson's distilled non-alcoholic spirits range took their inspiration from The Art of Distillation, an ancient book, published in London in 1651, offering forgotten copper-stilled, non-alcoholic remedies, re-purposed by Ben to champion a new non-alcoholic drinks category. They are served, just like standard alcoholic spirits, with tonics or in non-alcoholic cocktails. The blends are created through individual copper pot distillates. Seedlip has created a bespoke distilling process for each individual botanical, and boasts zero calories per recommended 50mL serve. The beverages are sugar-free, sweetener-free and allergen free, making them a go-to for those looking for a credible alternative to alcohol.
