Ah, Christmas. The time when everyone comes piling through our doors. Some of you even bring your cars (please don't). With the shift in temperature, white wines are coming into their own once more, and the big cheese in the room is the resurgent Chardonnay (speaking of cheese, Chardonnay partners brilliantly with a wide array of them).

Chardonnay's spiritual starting point is Burgundy, but this versatile grape makes itself at home within a broad assortment of global locales. Its ability to successfully champion a variety of styles – from lean and mineral to fat and buttery – makes it a favourite of winemakers everywhere. To that end, we've assembled a great selection of Chardonnays with a range of styles to suit all tastes and prices to suit all wallets.

We're still covering the reds; sometimes you just can't beat a good Pinot Noir or Bordeaux with dinner. Sweet wines, organics, case offers, mini sparklers, non-alcoholic options, gin, cocktail kits, gift vouchers – it's all here, adding further clout to our current swag of fab festive offerings.

Anyway, please take care of yourselves as you enjoy your highly-deserved breaks and adventures out in the world. There has been a lot to deal with for all of us, and while the drama may not be quite over yet, make sure to take some time with family, with friends, and with yourself.

Celebrate life. All the best for 2023.

WHITE BORDEAUX

Good entry-level option into the world of white Bordeaux

41623

CHATEAU NICOT

BORDEAUX BLANC
2021 | $20.99

Ripeness gives this wine a rich character. It has plenty of typical herbal texture, but also offers hints of yellow fruits and an attractive perfumed aftertaste.

White Bordeaux is crafted from a blend of Semillon, Sauvignon Blanc and often Muscadelle, which is then aged in oak – often a lot of new oak, and always French of course. The wines frequently undergo malolactic fermentation, converting the harsh malic acids to lactic (think milk). While New Zealand Sauvignon Blanc has made its mark with its vivacious style, these Sauvignon Blanc blends are some of the finest expressions in the world. While brilliant on release, they also have the ability to age for a good many years. Here we feature a range in styles, including the new dry white wine from Château Suduiraut.

Gift Vouchers

Sometimes the best gift of all is letting them decide

GLENGARRY GIFT VOUCHERS

Glengarry $50 and $100 Gift Vouchers can be purchased and then redeemed either instore or online. Your gift voucher is sent electronically to the recipient. (This is, of course, ideal for those of you sending your gifts on the 24th of December at 10:00pm.)

Why give someone you love/cherish/vaguely know a Glengarry Gift Voucher?

1. Because the recipient enjoys a good wine, and that's the only kind we have.
2. Because you're a benign and philanthropic human being beloved by those around you for your lavish generosity. Must keep up the reputation.
3. Because you don't know enough about wine and what constitutes a good one. In this way, the weight of making the correct choice for the recipient is completely removed from your shoulders. You feel lighter already.
4. Because it's online, and just so convenient and easy to do. Science is awesome.
5. Just because. You know what you're doing and no explanations are required, thank you very much.
